WEDDING PARTY

AIMEE LI ("BOO BOO")
maid of honour
Known for her delectable baking, powerful calves, and fashion sense, the future "Dr. Boo" was born in 1987 and does not remember a world without email, or anything before the year 2000 for that matter.

MAE CHIANG bridesmaid
As family and friend, Mae Suk-Man Chiang taught Marilyn everything there is to know about filial piety and being a good Chinese girl; nevertheless, Marilyn still lets her parents buy her groceries at Costco.

MARGARET NG THOW HING
tea ceremony bridesmaid
Marilyn's oldest friend, "Double-Wow Club" co-founder, "The Flower" co-playwright & piano duet partner extraordinaire. For most of 34 yrs, Margaret & Marilyn have lived within a few postal codes of each other.

KELLYANNE CRITZER
flower girl
Poor Kellyanne. Try as they might, her brother Jack, & cousins Matthew & Caiden couldn't stop the girl in her. She's blossomed into a beauty with boundless energy, smarts that make a mother proud and a flirtatious personality that make a father nervous.

SERENE PARLEA-VUONG
flower girl
Serene is the daughter of Luciana, Marilyn's dearest friend from Med School. While Luciana passed down her beauty and smarts onto Serene, Marilyn imparted her love of getting her hair washed.

PETER GUY best man
He's got the look. Watch out Tyler Brulé, Peter's just gettin' started! This fashionista & phrasologist is renowned for taking a room's energy from zero to hero. He'll spin a tale, get you to share your most embarrassing moments, & if necessary, bust it sans-chemise to BSB.

DAVID HONG groomsman
The majority of Douglas' stories begin 'So, Dave and I were...' Whatever antics followed, Dave's determination never lessened; even Manhattan hasn't gotten the best of him. When he escapes the O.R., his nights overflow with good food and fine drink.

ERIK LAUTIER
singer
"Erik-of-all-trades" delivers professional output in all of the 10 activities he's multi-tasking. From smashing graphic design to smart digital strategy, it's always the voice that stops people in their tracks. Only one Beauty was able tame this Beast.

CASEY LI
singer, master of ceremonies
Can sing, play guitar, break dance and is a killer ruby-coder. He also handsomely sported a full tux and 'stache' at his grade nine high school formal. Sorry ladies, bad news... he's taken!

TABLE TALK! Professional "silhouettists" traveled Europe in the 1800s, cutting cameos of wealthy lords and ladies in their fanciest wigs and hats. Ooh la la.

DEGREES OF SEPARATION

DOUGLAS SCHEIN

Attended INSEAD business school with Samir Jhaveri. They traveled to India together, where Samir convinced Douglas to move to Toronto to work at Omers.

SAMIR JHAVERI

Introduced Douglas to his fellow elementary school alumnus Chris Coutinho. Chris became pals with Samir because he likes having tall friends. Who doesn't?
